MONTPELIER

Cottage at Car barn Was Practically Destroyed by Fire This Morning.

The fire department was called out about 1:35 o'clock this morning for a fire in the Frank Huntington house at the car barn. It was the middle house of the five opposite the car barn and the loss on it was practically total, or about $2,000. While the building was not entirely consumed, all of the wood-work inside was charred, which increases the damages very materially.

The house was occupied by Danny John, who has been employed by the traction company and who, with his family, was in Barre last night. It is understood he was planning to move out of the house shortly. The fire was discovered by Fred Murray following a warning, that smoke was coming from somewhere, as given by the night man at the car barn. He telephoned to the fire department that smoke was smelled and that it came from that house. Shortly afterward the blaze broke out of the back side of the house and there was little chance of stopping the fire. The general alarm was rung in at 1:58 o'clock. For half an hour the pressure was very low but upon arrival of men from the water department a four-inch gate which is connected with the Pioneer plant of the power company was closed, which gave more pressure. Previously the fire department had two streams of water playing on the fire. These did not accomplish what it was believed they should and a reducer was placed on one line of hose and then a garden hose was attached. In the meantime, the gate at the Pioneer was closed so that the pressure was increased. The front end of the building from the outside did not appear damaged but the inside was practically gutted. The need of a motor apparatus was clearly demonstrated again, for it was a long run for the teams.

This will leave a short distance between the road now being completed and the proposed road but the building of the surveying parties are also running lines on proposed projects in Irasburg, Danby and Royalton.

Land's Ten Serradores of Barre gave an excellent entertainment in the city hall Friday evening. The early part of the evening was given to a concert. This was a little delayed owing to one of the party missing the trolley car so that he arrived in Montpelier a little later than expected. Dancing commenced about 9:30 o'clock and some 100 couples enjoyed the recreation until about 1 o'clock. The selections rendered by Charles Gibbons, Garibaldi Barberi, James Bennett and Miss Elena Barberi were much enjoyed, each of them receiving an ovation of applause for their entertainment.
